

For Immediate Release – January 3, 2008

Contact: Primary – David Wood, Director of Marketing 608 443-4902

COMPANY PRESIDENT SELECTED TO INBUSINESS MAGAZINE 2008 HALL OF FAME

(Madison, WI) — David K. Stark, president of Stark Company Realtors[®], has been selected to the InBusiness Magazine 2008 Executive Hall of Fame. This prestigious designation recognizes top business executives for making significant contributions to Madison’s corporate climate, as well as nonprofits and various other organizations that impact the area’s quality of life. Members of the 2008 Hall of Fame were chosen by the 2007 Executive Hall of Fame group.

Stark joins Jim Bradley, president of Home Savings Bank; Joan Burke, president of First Business Trust & Investments; Clayton Frank, publisher of The Capital Times and Bill Harvey, CEO of Alliant Energy Company as members of the 2008 group.

“I am honored to be recognized by my peers and be associated with such an esteemed group of people,” said David Stark. “My grandfather was a founding board member of the United Way; giving and community involvement is a life-long habit and something our company is dedicated to.”

Stark is involved in United Way of Dane County as Chairperson as well as the Meriter Foundation as Director. He is also former director of YMCA of Metro Madison and the American Heart Association. Stark has received numerous awards including Madison’s 50 Most Influential People, Know Your Madisonian and Outstanding Service Award.

Founded in Madison, Wisconsin in 1908, Stark Company Realtors[®] has sold more homes than any other firm in Dane County. The company has nearly 300 professionals located in eight offices throughout South Central Wisconsin, and has relationships with over 50 builders of new construction homes, condominium, and retail developments. Celebrating 100 years of service, the Company is recognized as the “Most Trusted Name in Real Estate”. Visit www.starkhomes.com

###

