

Stark Company Realtors® Presents 2007 Annual Awards

During the Company's annual Appreciation Event held in November 6th at Nakoma Country Club, the company honors two employees that have been recognized by their peers and management team for special efforts in service to others in the past year. The two annual awards are:

Cornerstone Award

This award is presented annually for outstanding service to the company. Award-winners are recognized for their willingness to share time, talents, tools, advice, feedback and failures in their interest to foster personal success in others, creating a culture of camaraderie.

2007 Cornerstone Award Winner

Congratulations go out to Ruth Wangerin of our Central office. Among her office peers, she was a clear choice, being recognized for her cheerful willingness to lend help at any time. Congratulations Ruth!
